Petitioner/applicant is cautioned to avoid submitting personal information in documents filed in a patent application that may contribute to identity theft. ## IN THE UNITED STATES PATENT AND TRADEMARK OFFICE

In re the Application of:

Applicant: Lundberg, John D.
Serial No.: 10/782,428
Art Unit: 2854
Filed: February 18, 2004
Examiner: Minh H. Chau (previously Charles H. Nolan)
For: "Rotary Engraving Apparatus"

STATEMENT CONTESTING ABANDONMENT AND ESTABLISHING UNINTENTIONAL DELAY

Applicant originally filed the above-referenced application on February 18, 2004.

Applicant subsequently responded to the First Office Action in this matter on May 23, 2005.

Applicant received no other correspondence or communication from the U.S. Patent & Trademark Office ("USPTO") until Applicant received a Notice of Abandonment dated December 29, 2005, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit "A." Although the subject Notice of Abandonment references some type of communication dated June 6, 2005, Applicant has never received such communication.

Applicant respectfully asserts that abandonment of the subject application is improper. After filing its Response to First Office Action on May 23, 2005, Applicant has not received any additional correspondence or other communication from the USPTO. At the time that the enclosed Notice of Abandonment was received, undersigned counsel for Applicant fully believed that the matter was in good standing and pending with the Examiner. Receipt of the Notice of Abandonment was a complete surprise to undersigned counsel and Applicant.

Following receipt of the Notice of Abandonment, undersigned counsel undertook an 5 extensive search of all files related to this matter and other matters being handled on behalf of Applicant. Part of this search involved retrieving certain file materials from closed storage, which added to the delay associated with the present filing. As a result of this detailed search, undersigned counsel has not located any correspondence or other communication from the USPTO dated June 6, 2005 or otherwise related to this matter.

10 In summary, Applicant asserts that abandonment of the subject application was improper and not warranted under the circumstances. Applicant never received the correspondence that allegedly gave rise to the subject abandonment. Applicant, through undersigned counsel, hereby avers and represents that it has never received the June 6, 2005 communication from the USPTO referenced in the attached Notice of Abandonment, or any other similar communication in this 15 matter.

Applicant hereby encloses a check in the amount of $750.00 as the required filing fee for this Petition. Applicant respectfully asserts that, under the circumstances, this matter should never have been abandoned. Accordingly, Applicant respectfully requests a waiver of this fee in this case. In the event that it is determined that abandonment was in fact proper, then Applicant 20 respectfully represents that such abandonment was completely unintentional.

Applicant's representative, Ted M. Anthony, can be reached by telephone at (337) 262-9000 or facsimile at (337) 262-9001.

Respectfully submitted:
